What is the Psychiatric Urgent Response Clinic?

The clinic provides follow-up appointments for patients who have seen the emergency department doctor for an urgent mental health concern but did not have to stay in the hospital.

Emergency department doctors make the referral to our clinic.

What services do we offer?

- Talk about your mental health concerns
- Brief supportive counselling
- Crisis intervention
- Safety assessments and planning
- Resources

What happens at the clinic?

You will see a psychiatrist for an assessment and consultation.

The psychiatrist might book a follow-up appointment at the clinic or refer you to other mental health services.
