

Visit Surrey's Urgent Primary Care Centre

10 a.m. - 9 p.m.
7 days a week

604-572-2610
fraserhealth.ca/urgentcare

Walk-in or Book an Appointment

Access to:

- Family doctor, mental health and substance use counselling

Visit the Urgent Primary Care Centre for:

- Coughs, colds, cuts
- Skin conditions, minor infections
- Prescription refills (no opioids or narcotics)
- Sprains and strains, back pain, fevers
- Nausea, diarrhea, constipation
- Fevers, infections, sore throats, ear aches
- Minor cuts, sprains, injuries, prescription refills

Visit the Emergency Department for:

- A health crisis or medical emergency
- Serious illness or injuries
- Chest pains, suspected stroke
- Overdose or poisoning
- Trouble breathing, uncontrolled bleeding
- Broken bones, dislocated joints
- Mental health crisis

Where to find us:

North Surrey/
Whalley

Unit G2 9639 - 137A Street
Surrey, B.C. V3T 0M1

Surrey Memorial Hospital

Not sure where to go? Call 8-1-1 for fast, free, expert health advice in 130 languages, available 24/7.